

We embrace you, all of you

The Oliven Family

Each of us carries the memory of a great man, gifted with a brilliant and creative mind, who lived life to the fullest. In his 73 years, Scliar achieved success in every endeavor he pursued, whether as a public health doctor or as a writer.

The guri who grew up in the Bom Fim neighborhood wrote for the simple pleasure of telling good stories – stories that never ceased to amaze us. More than 80 published books, numerous literary awards, chronicles, and articles reveal the work of a humanist, always faithful to his roots.

When it came to family, Scliar was a generous, passionate, and uniquely devoted man. We all learned from him to nurture our dreams with admiration and open hearts, for they are the raw material of life. May he rest in peace, for his legacy is immortal. Moacyr, it is we who embrace you today. All of you!!
